A group of people are hiking up a steep, rocky hillside. The terrain is covered with green grass and numerous yellow wildflowers. Several large, dark, charred tree trunks are scattered across the slope. In the background, large, light-colored rock formations are visible. The hikers are wearing casual outdoor clothing, and some are carrying backpacks. One person in the foreground is wearing a light-colored shirt and dark pants, while others further up the trail are wearing hats and backpacks. The overall scene suggests a wilderness or conservation area.
